

Will-Writing Services

Some Charities offer free will-writing services. They hope you will use your will to leave them a gift, but you do not have to. This gift is called a legacy. If you use a will-writing service, it is always a good idea to speak to an independent solicitor.

Macmillan Cancer Support

We're offering you the chance to write your will for a discounted price so you can make a difference to the lives and causes that are most important to you. Here are several ways you can write your will with one of our highly-regarded partners. Depending on where you live in the UK, we have different options available for you. You can choose to have your will written online, at home, by post or by telephone. For more information ring 0808 808 00 00 or contact the Supporter Care Hub on 0300 1000 200 or find out more and register on line at:

Free Wills Month UK

Free Wills Month brings together a group of well-respected charities to offer members of the public aged 55 and over the opportunity to have their simple Wills written or updated free of charge by using participating solicitors in selected locations around England, Wales and Northern Ireland. The charities supporting Free Wills Month work for a variety of causes. To register on-line visit: www.freewillsmoonth.org.uk

Will Aid UK

Will Aid is a special partnership between the legal profession and nine of the UK's best-loved charities. Every November, participating solicitors waive their fee for writing a basic Will. Instead, they invite clients to make a voluntary donation to Will Aid – we suggest £95 for a single basic Will and £150 for a pair of basic 'mirror' Wills. Any time from September onwards, go to our online postcode search or call us on 0300 0309 558 for details of a solicitor near you. To find out more visit www.willaid.org.uk
